

I strongly object to any reduction or interference in Wisconsin's "no-call" provisions limiting telemarketing calls to consumers. We do NOT want any more telemarketing under any pretext whatsoever. Our State's 80% sign-up rate is proof that most other people are equally appalled and annoyed at the banks and other lying weasel public nuisances that plague us.